7: Second Annual Hispanic Law Conference and Career Fair. This event, sponsored by WCL, the Hispanic Bars of the District of Columbia, Maryland, and Virginia, and the Hispanic Law Students Association, will be held at WCL on Saturday, November 7, 1998, from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. in room 603. This conference will provide a forum for Hispanic and non-Hispanic attorneys and students to engage in thoughtful dialogue about important issues in the Hispanic community and the Hispanic legal profession in the Washington, D.C. metropolitan area. For more information, contact Monica Rodriguez or Miguel Cordano at (202) 274-4115.

December

7: 50th Anniversary of Human Rights Instruments Celebration. This event, cosponsored by WCL and the American Society of International Law, will take place at WCL and will begin at 3:00 p.m. in room 603 on Monday, December 7, 1998. It will consist of two panel discussions, followed by dinner and a keynote address at 7:00 p.m. The first panel, entitled "Implementing International Human Rights Norms: Comparisons and Perspectives," will offer a historical commentary on the various regional human rights instruments and an evaluation of their first 50 years in operation. The second panel, "The Next 50 Years: New Actors in Human Rights," will make predictions about the future implementation of these instruments and examine the role of new participants, such as NGOs, in the human rights arena. For more information, contact Lisa Trojnar at (202) 274-4071. ☉
