EDITOR'S WELCOME

Dear Readers,

It is my pleasure to present Volume 10 of the American University Legislation & Policy Brief. The Brief stands out as the only bipartisan student-run publication in our nation's capital focused on timely legislative and policy initiatives. Volume 10 includes a foreword, written by Professor Fernando Laguarda, two articles, and one student comment.

The Brief was established in 2008 as an online student publication and accompanying panel series analyzing legislative initiatives and policy discussions. Today, the Brief has expanded its offering through an annual publication with practitioner and student articles, a spring multi-panel symposium, and two online student blogs¹. The student blogs allow our staff to author short-form pieces on any policy area or government oversight topic they choose.

First, I would like to thank Professor Fernando Laguarda for authoring the foreword and his years of guidance and support as the faculty sponsor of the Brief. On behalf of the entire staff, I wish him the best of luck.

Second, I would like to thank the authors for writing such timely and important articles. I would also like to thank the Washington College of Law Program on Law and Government for their continued support.

Finally, I would like to thank the Editorial Board and the Staff for their hard-work and commitment during this COVID-virtual school year. Thank you in particular to the Brief's Senior Articles Editor, Brittany Webb, for her dedication to this year's publication.

It has been both an honor and a privilege to serve as Editor-in-Chief of this Brief. I wish the best of luck to next year's Editorial Board.

Best Regards,

H. Warner Allison
