2010

Letter from the Editors

Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalcommons.wcl.american.edu/tma

Recommended Citation
Available at: http://digitalcommons.wcl.american.edu/tma/vol6/iss2/2

This Letter from the Executive Board & Staff is brought to you for free and open access by the Washington College of Law Journals & Law Reviews at Digital Commons @ American University Washington College of Law. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Modern American by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ American University Washington College of Law. For more information, please contact fbrown@wcl.american.edu.
Letter from the Editors
Letter from the Executive Board

The Modern American re-emerged this summer even more modern than ever, after the completion of our seven-month Strategic Plan Initiative. Many of the publication’s changes readers will never see, but others, like our new cover art, design, and content features, are exciting changes for our six-year old publication.

In addition to a newer look and content, TMA has gone digital. Now, TMA offers twenty-first century discussion about law and politics on twenty-first century platforms, including our new blog, Modern America, and our new Digital Commons website. Modern America features regular contributions about current happenings in law, politics, and culture, much like The Modern American print issue. Readers will notice a number of recommended blog entries at the end of articles and features that are topically-related to the print content, for example. TMA has also joined the Digital Commons, the leading online repository for scholarly legal work in the country. TMA’s Digital Commons page will include dual platform publication of current issues, volume archives, featured content ranked by popularity, as well as another submission venue for authors. We are delighted to join the Digital Commons community, and hope you visit us at our new cyberspace home.

Finally, amidst all of these changes, we are interested in hearing from YOU, our readers, about yourselves and TMA’s coming-of-age. At the back of this issue is our first Readers’ Survey. Please take a few minutes to fill-out the paper or online survey so that we can learn more about our growing audience, and your thoughts about the publication. The more we learn about who you are, the better we can fulfill our mission to elevate non-traditional and marginalized voices and issues in the law. Plus, participants will enter a raffle to win an Ipod shuffle. More information can be found at the survey announcement toward the end of the issue.

As the Volume 6 Executive Board makes way for the Volume 7 leaders, we want to thank our readers, authors, staff, advisors, and every other person who helped make Volume 6 and the Strategic Plan such a huge success. We are excited about the publication’s future and wish The Modern American six more ground-breaking years.

Modern America: The Modern American’s Law & Politics Blog,

The Modern American @ the Digital Commons,
http://digitalcommons.wcl.american.edu/tma/.

Sincerely Yours,
The Executive Board
The Modern American

Staff

Executive Board
Editor-in-Chief
Richael Faithful

Executive Editor
Rene A. Carballo

Senior Managing Editor
Michele-Ann Wilson

Senior Articles Editor
Tami Martin

Senior Marketing Editor
Esther B. Cajuste

Senior Staff Editor
Julia Saladino

Symposium Editor
John Rogos

Articles Editors
Lauren Forbes, Lucy Colby, Paul Schuh, Alex Diaz-Ferguson

Staff Writers
Kathy Bosse, Keyla Bade, Rachel Zoglins, Justin Storch, Camille “CC” Jones, Kate Kelly

Junior Staff
Ashley Prather, David Wexelblat, Leah Wissow, Leslie Morris, Alexandra Manrique, Shailee Diwanji, Jean-Yves Mutanda

Assistant Managing Editors
Ruth Obaseki, Rachel Fisher

Assistant Marketing Editors
Alex Bernshteyn, Stacy King

Blog Contributors
Zannie Carlson, Gary Norman, Isis Goldberg, Alexandra Manrique, Shailee Diwanji

Faculty Advisors
Sherry Weaver
Lisa Epperson

Cover Art
Rene A. Carballo